

Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, JANUARY 14, 1860.

To Our City Subscribers.

Having, from the first of January, disposed of our city subscription list to Mr. Frazee, we desire to state to our city subscribers that we are in arrears, and have been so for some time past, and presented during the present week and the next. This does since that date will be collected by Mr. Frazee. The losses of the week, we hope it, and do care to pay by the week, etc., etc. Mr. Frazee, for his services, quarterly or quarterly a advance. We hope this new arrangement will prove convenient and satisfactory to all concerned.

STELLAR.—The beautiful star now visible in the evening in the west, is the planet Venus.

FOUNTAIN SPRAYER.—Two negroes were committed to prison yesterday morning as runaways.

GEN. WHITFIELD.—Gen. Whitfield, of Kansas, was a visitor to the city yesterday. He is in excellent health and spirits.

SENATE.—A Senate Oliver, senator from the state of Dot, in the Missouri legislature, passed through the city yesterday, destined for Jackson, where the legislature convenes on the 16th inst.

CONTINUED.—The case of Nathaniel Sims, who, with charged with passing a lot of forged cattle under false and fictitious pretenses, was committed yesterday until his trial on the 16th inst.

INCORPORATION.—The incorporation of all—cotton and silk—into the elegant stuffs of five cloths now in store at the Banca of Sprague & McCloskey. They are almost daily in receipt of new supplies, and were determined to establish a clothing and furnishing emporium inferior to none in the country, and—will you believe it?—at prices that go at present. We can truly recommend them to the public.

THE FLORIDA FREE NEWS BALL.—The Tallahassee Floridian, of the 31st ult., says:

The cause of the General Assembly, failed to become a law for want of the signature of the Governor, who was withheld without known reason why that signature was withheld are not known. We apprehend, however, that they related more to the power of the state than to the power of the state to enact it.

ALABAMA DECORATION IN CONGRESS.—The Mobile Mercury gives a very discouraging account of the state of health of Mr. Sallieworth, Representative in Congress from Mobile, who has been ill for several months, by reason of illness. It represents the symptoms of his disease to have become quite alarming to his friends. No hope is now entertained that he can take his seat in Congress for a long time, if ever. It is believed that he has determined to resign.

CHAS. INQUIRIES.—Equal & Equal was called upon yesterday to hold inquiries upon the bodies of Jeff and Frank, slaves, who were killed by the destruction of Mowers, Forces, & Co's sugar mill, on Adams street, yesterday, while engaged in the work of removing the debris of the building. Frank was bold and勇敢, and was enabled to hold his own, but Jeff, who had been a slave for twenty years, had been beaten so much that he was dead before he reached the door. His body was buried in the yard of his master, Mr. Thornton, and was dug up about thirty years. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased had come to their death by the accidental fall of the building in which they were confined.

GP DOWN, DOWN, DOWN, THEY COME!—What? Why in walls of stone an office on a corner of Adams street, and last, lower, still lower down, down goes the price of all kinds of good washable clothing, gaudy furnishings, goods of all kinds—such as shirts and drawers, blankets, sheets, and anything else you want of the most substantial kind, to the lowest point.

W. T. LAWRENCE, M. D., W. T. L. CO., Memphis, Jan. 13th, 1860.

New Memphis Theater.

The benefits of that versatile actress and agreeable lady, Mrs. Florence, came off last night, on which occasion there was a large audience, notwithstanding the very inclement weather. So numbers tried and succeeded in getting into the theater, and the Lady Water-lett was full of life and animation. The dresses were on such a night, and the ladies and gentlemen who made up the audience and presented during the present week and the next. This does since that date will be collected by Mr. Frazee. The losses of the week, we hope it, and do care to pay by the week, etc., etc. Mr. Frazee, for his services, quarterly or quarterly a advance. We hope this new arrangement will prove convenient and satisfactory to all concerned.

STAR.—The beautiful star now visible in the evening in the west, is the planet Venus.

FOUNTAIN SPRAYER.—Two negroes were committed to prison yesterday morning as runaways.

GEN. WHITFIELD.—Gen. Whitfield, of Kansas, was a visitor to the city yesterday. He is in excellent health and spirits.

SENATE.—A Senator Oliver, senator from the state of Dot, in the Missouri legislature, passed through the city yesterday, destined for Jackson, where the legislature convenes on the 16th inst.

CONTINUED.—The case of Nathaniel Sims, who, with charged with passing a lot of forged cattle under false and fictitious pretenses, was committed yesterday until his trial on the 16th inst.

INCORPORATION.—The incorporation of all—cotton and silk—into the elegant stuffs of five cloths now in store at the Banca of Sprague & McCloskey. They are almost daily in receipt of new supplies, and were determined to establish a clothing and furnishing emporium inferior to none in the country, and—will you believe it?—at prices that go at present. We can truly recommend them to the public.

THE FLORIDA FREE NEWS BALL.—The Tallahassee Floridian, of the 31st ult., says:

The cause of the General Assembly, failed to become a law for want of the signature of the Governor, who was withheld without known reason why that signature was withheld are not known. We apprehend, however, that they related more to the power of the state than to the power of the state to enact it.

ALABAMA DECORATION IN CONGRESS.—The Mobile Mercury gives a very discouraging account of the state of health of Mr. Sallieworth, Representative in Congress from Mobile, who has been ill for several months, by reason of illness. It represents the symptoms of his disease to have become quite alarming to his friends. No hope is now entertained that he can take his seat in Congress for a long time, if ever. It is believed that he has determined to resign.

CHAS. INQUIRIES.—Equal & Equal was called upon yesterday to hold inquiries upon the bodies of Jeff and Frank, slaves, who were killed by the destruction of Mowers, Forces, & Co's sugar mill, on Adams street, yesterday, while engaged in the work of removing the debris of the building. Frank was bold and勇敢, and was enabled to hold his own, but Jeff, who had been a slave for twenty years, had been beaten so much that he was dead before he reached the door. His body was buried in the yard of his master, Mr. Thornton, and was dug up about thirty years. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased had come to their death by the accidental fall of the building in which they were confined.

GP DOWN, DOWN, DOWN, THEY COME!—What? Why in walls of stone an office on a corner of Adams street, and last, lower, still lower down, down goes the price of all kinds of good washable clothing, gaudy furnishings, goods of all kinds—such as shirts and drawers, blankets, sheets, and anything else you want of the most substantial kind, to the lowest point.

W. T. LAWRENCE, M. D., W. T. L. CO., Memphis, Jan. 13th, 1860.

Port of Memphis.

River and Steamboat Matters.

The river and steamboat offices at this point yesterday, having cleared up after a heavy rain, the water was high, and the boats were numerous.

Steamboats.

The steamer "Mississippi" was full of passengers.

Steamer "Mississippi" was full of passengers.